TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The name of no person will be entered upon our books unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance.

Distant subscribers may forward us money by letter, the postage on which will be paid by us, and all risk attendant on shipment is its sole transmission.

THE COUNTRY FARMER is published twice weekly during the session of Congress and semi-weekly during the recess.

Subscriptions for a period less than a year will be received on terms proportioned to the above annual rates.

POSTMASTER: Papers are returned to us at our agents; and, by sending us FIVE DAILY subscribers, with $20 enclosed, or six WEEKLY subscribers, with $25 enclosed, will be entitled to one copy of the next edition as they furnish us subscribers for, gratis.

Carpets, Carpets, Carpets.
BARNES & MITCHELL would call attention to their unusually large and elegant supply of carpets, floor cloths, rugs, and house-furnishing dry goods generally. All newly opened within the last day or two. And the greater number having been purchased at auction, will certainly be sold ten per cent. less than the same can be had bought in the regular way. They would therefore especially invite persons in want of all and every description of house-furnishing goods to call and examine their assortment before selling themselves elsewhere, as they are determined to sell as cheap and cheaper than the same can be had in this or any other city. They would name also having just been opened—

COATS, pants, and vests, made to order.—BARNES & MITCHELL would respectfully announce to gentlemen that they have opened within the last few days the most extensive and best assorted stock of French, English, and American cloths, cassimeres, and vestings that have ever before been brought to this market, embracing the best makes, all the newest styles, and most fashionable clothes of the season, and at the same time, they will give you the closest and most economical buyers. As it is their purpose to increase their business in this particular branch this year, they would most earnestly invite all gentlemen in want of a good and handsome coat, pair pants, or vest made to order, in a neat and fashionable style, to call and examine their great variety before buying, as they are determined to sell cheap, and give a good article. Their tailors, in point of cutting and good workmanship, are equal to any in the city. And they will, in every case, guarantee a satisfactory fit, or else the pchaser will not be expected to take the goods.

They only name a few of the leading colors:

- 10 pieces very superior and rich black French cloths, of Bajou & Simoni's manufacture
- 10 pieces French black and English wool-dyed cloths, from which we have coats made to cost from $16 to $20
- 6 pieces London smoke and olive brown cloths, now much worn in frock and sack coats

4 pieces olive and other fashionable shades, green do
3 do claret colored do
12 do French and English blue do of a variety of shades
9 do dark grey do
Also, undet mixed
Beaver cloths for over and sack coats, of every shade of color and quality of material. Also, tweeds and Pelisse cloths for business coats.

IN CASSIMERES.

10 pieces black French doeklin, Bajou & Simoni's make, the genuine article, and will be sold 30 per cent. less than former prices.

50 pieces real French and American cashmeres of new and fashionable colors—among them plain and changeable browns, green, mouse, drab, grey, and other fashionable colors.

Also, grey and other colored tweeds of every quality and style.

IN VESTINGS.

Our supply is superior and more extensive than we have ever before had, embracing many new and desirable colors, styles, &c. Likewise, a beautiful supply of cravats, in silk, satin, and Madras. Merino shirts and draws of every description and very cheap. Best quality kid gloves, merino, cashmere, &c., do Merino and lambswool socks, suspenders, and every other article usually kept in our line for gentlemen's use.

EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL OF VIRGINIA.
The Diocesan School, near Alexandria; Rev. E. A.
Beltracchi, Rector.

THE next session of this institution will commence on the second Wednesday (19th) of September, and continue ten months. The object of the school is to educate youth thoroughly on the principles—prepare them for the junior and senior classes of college, or the active duties of life. The instruction is extensive in every department of language and science, and the greatest pains taken to secure competent instruction in every branch. Terms: $400 per session, and $250 annually in advance. Parents sending two sons pay $600.

The number of students is limited to 75. Parents who intend to send sons are requested to give early notice, that places may be reserved for them. All who propose entering the school are most earnestly requested to present themselves punctually on the first day of the session. Application for admission and further information to be addressed to the Rector, post office "Theological Seminary, Fairfax county, Virginia."
